Dear BHRRC,

Updated adidas' response re. Sanyuan Oversea, Myanmar

Thank you for furnishing additional information on this case, including the reference to adidas as reportedly being a customer of this factory.

As we have indicated, all suppliers producing for adidas must be authorized for use and are subject to a rigorous onboarding process, including technical performance assessments and labor audits. No orders can be placed without such an authorization.

We have no record of this supplier ever producing for adidas. But given the alleged linkage, we have informed our Intellectual Property team about the case. They manage our counterfeit investigations.

Thank you again for reaching out to adidas for a response.

Sincerely,
