Dear Christen and Marti,

Thank you for the opportunity to respond to the reference to ConocoPhillips in the Union of Concerned Scientists article and the study published in Climatic Change.

At ConocoPhillips, we operate responsibly and take climate change issues seriously; managing greenhouse gas emissions in our operations and integrating climate change-related activities and goals into our business planning. We recognize the benefits of efficient use of our products and the role natural gas plays in reducing global emissions.

Best regards,

Lloyd Visser
