

Name of organization: WeGenerationNetwork

WeGenerationNetwork Capacity Building training programme was organized with 10 volunteer members in nearly 3 years. WeGenerationNetwork will help in addressing their needs and allocating scarce resources. In last 3 years, WeGenerationNetwork helped to form over 40 labour unions and providing the legal aids services, since February 2012. We have 300 members in WeGenerationNetwork. We trained 180 people in last 3 years. We trained as 6 months module. From all these activities, we are helping in forming of “National labour unions network”.

Labours needed to be trained and mentored. WeGenerationNetwork also knows that building capacity and skills helps workers value what they do and feel competent in their labour rights movements. The previous programs in WeGenerationNetwork have successfully used capacity building to enhance their rights and service program (such as; legal aids, forming labour unions, conducting trainings, giving legal advice for strikes, and events). WeGenerationNetwork for Capacity Building provides training opportunities to voiceless that are trapped in low paid job and less capacity.

As a growing engagement WeGenerationNetwork has the selected labour which they are elected to represent in issues. The purpose of the WeGenerationNetwork Centre is to ensure the responsibility and attitude through need-based training. WeGenerationNetwork does this work by building local training and technical assistance capacity, collaborating for action through multi-factory coalitions and providing expertise.

WeGenerationNetwork Center for Training, Support, and Technical Assistance and we view capacity building as an active, participatory, and results-oriented process. Building the capacity of labours organizations builds the capacity of sustainable communities. WeGenerationNetwork is actively involved in capacity building for Micro, Small, and Medium Size labour groups as solution providers for movements, strikes, and protests. The capacity-building as part of a WeGenerationNetwork’s organizational strategy to improve overall productivity, motivate career, to deliver high-quality resources, strategy to design to transform workforce service delivery.
